WASHINGTON (AP) — Claiming there's a mistake on one of every four welfare checks, the government is threatening to withhold up to $689 million in federal relief funds next year

Heavy snow, gusty winds sweep nation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Heavy snow, wind gusts up to 60 miles per hour and rain pounded the west-central plains early today, closing mountain passes in Arizona and Colorado and coating highways with a dangerous icy gloss.

Meanwhile, storm conditions around Lake Erie, where dozens of Ohio and Michigan families fled their homes for fear of floods, began to subside. Local authorities called off a flood alert issued Monday night when gale-strength winds whipped high waves landward.

Similar conditions caused flooding Nov. 14.

Freezing drizzle caused hazardous driving conditions from Missouri and southeastern Iowa through the lower Great Lakes and into New England. One death in Missouri was attributed to icy roads as temperatures dipped into the teens.

Moderate to heavy snow whitened Colorado as temperatures dipped toward zero and winds whipped light snow into furious ground blizzards making driving difficult.

Four to 6 inches of snow hit the Grand Canyon area in Arizona.

The only clear skies early today were over the Pacific Coast states and northern plains, the southern Rockies and the south Atlantic Coast.

Temperatures before dawn ranged from 37 degrees at Butte, Mont., to 75 degrees at Key West, Fla., and Brownsville, Tex.

Weather

Cloudy with rain and drizzle over the state tonight. Lows from the mid 30s to the lower 50s. Rain changing to snow flurries, and turning colder through the day Wednesday, with highs in the 40s and 50s dropping into the 30s during the day.

Supreme court OKs state bans on 'revelries'

WASHINGTON (AP) — On a 6-3 vote the Supreme Court ruled today that the states can shut down bars that feature nude dancers and other "baccchanalian revelries."

Justice William H. Rehnquist, in a sexually explicit majority opinion, said the First Amendment freedom does not go beyond books and movies to "gross sexuality" in public.

Besides, he said, the 21st Amendment in ending Prohibition gave the states broad controls over the sale of liquor in bars and night clubs.

The ruling came in a case from California where, officials said, "acts of sexual intercourse, masturbation sodomy, bestiality, oral copulation and flagellation" were being passed off as "dancing" and entertainment.

Rehnquist agreed with the state's appeal. He said prostitution, indecent exposure to young girls and rape flourished near California bars and night clubs in which "live entertainment" was featured.

The decision upholds 1970 regulations authorizing the state's Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to suspend or revoke a liquor license when officials conclude there is conduct "contrary to public welfare or morals."

The regulation had been declared unconstitutional in April 1971 by a three-judge federal court in Los Angeles empaneled to consider a suit brought by a group of bar owners.

Prices of meals may be increased

City school lunch fund in trouble

The Washington C. H. Board of Education Monday night transferred $5,000 from the general fund to the lunchroom account because of a year-end deficit and called for a study by the next board meeting to determine whether or not to raise the price of individual lunches by Jan. 1.

Superintendent Edwin M. Nestor said the lunchroom operation is not receiving as many government commodities from the state this year, especially in the line of meats, and as a result food cost have been higher. He also cited inflationary prices over last Organ Club in its project to convert the organ to a theatre-type instrument and

The board authorized the $5,000 transfer to immediately eliminate the deficit in the fund and asked for recomunless states weed out ineligible and overpaid recipients.

The Department of Health, Education and Welfare announced Monday it will begin cutting welfare matching grants in January.

Each state's loss will be equal to welfare-spending errors spotted by mandatory, state-run spot checks.

The immediate goal HEW officials said, is to eliminate an estimated 700,000 persons illegally receiving Aid to Families With Dependent Children (AFDC) and another 150,000 ineligible persons receiving aid for the aged, blind and disabled.

The nationwide welfare-misspending rate is 8.3 per cent, HEW said, with Nebraska high at 9.8 per cent and North Dakota low at 1.2 per cent.

California and New York each stand to lose more than $90 million in federal matching funds next year, the last half of fiscal 1973 and the first half of fiscal 1974.

John D. Twinn, administrator of HEW's Social and Rehabilitation Service, said the cutbacks will be based on quality-control investigations first instituted in 1964 and refined in 1970.

The regulations require states to check on a specific percentage of welfare cases semiannually to make sure there are no ineligible recipients, overpayments or underpayments.

The first complete subsample, covering 1.3 per cent of the welfare rolls last March, disclosed errors in about 25 per cent of payments, he said.

Twinn said 6.8 per cent of the 10.3 million persons receiving Aid to Families with Dependent Children and 4.9 per cent of the three million aged, blind and disabled adults were not eligible.

Overpayments were being made, he added, to 13.8 per cent of those on AFDC and 9.7 per cent in adult categories. Underpayments were 7.6 per cent and 5.6 per cent, respectively.

Twinn was hesitant to charge fraud, however, saying that more than half the errors came from state and local welfare agencies which failed to keep track of recipients' incomes and expenses.

In addition to the federal cutbacks, he said, states could save themselves $545 million next year by curbing those errors.

The nationwide 8.3-per-cent misspending figure will be applied as cutbacks to 21 states that have failed to review at least 85 per cent of the AFDC sampling and the 18 states that have not reviewed a similar percentage of adult cases, Twinn said.

Possum Trot railroad line for sale

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP) — "It goes no place to nowhere, but it sure has been a lot of fun," says the owner of the tiny Possum Trot Line in announcing he's selling out.

One of the last operating steam-run railroads in the nation, the Possum Trot Line chugs through only 23 miles of rural Arkansas, with stops at such points as Goose Ankle and Terrapin Neck.

The Possum Trot boasts rolling stock that includes three gleaming steam engines, one of them 52 years old, and it's a genuine Interstate Commerce Commission-sanctioned railroad.

But owner T.W.M. Long of Shreveport, La., said Tuesday he's quitting the rail business because the Possum Trot doesn't make any money. He is asking $500,000 for the whole shebang.

The train has been swaying along through the piney woods of south Arkansas since 1925, from Reader to Waterloo.

Long says he bought the line in 1956 as a "normal American investment. I wanted to make a little money."

He hasn't.

"The straw that broke the camel's back came with the closing of Berry Petroleum Company's refinery at Waterloo since about 93 per cent of the freight revenue came from this source," Long says.

Somewhere, he feels there is a buyer.

mentations to make the lunch program again self-sufficient. Students now pay 40 cents per meal in the Junior and Senior High School cafeterias and adults pay 45 cents.

THE BOARD also authorized the installation of individual heaters in the Brandt pipe organ chambers in the Junior High School auditorium, pledged full support to the Washington Organ Club in its project to convert he organ to a theatre-type instrument and authorized the expenditure of permanent improvement fund money for lighting changes of Gardner Park Stadium, among major actions.

Donald C. Riber, president of the Organ Club, explained to the board that the Organ Club is presently cleaning

Astronauts and rodents ready for last Apollo trip

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Apollo 17's astronauts climb into their training spacecraft for the last time today, cramming for Wednesday's nighttime launch and a farewell visit to the moon.

All systems — human, hardware, weather and rodent — were ready for the 9:53 p.m. EST liftoff, America's first night launching of humans into space.

Astronauts Eugene A. Cernan, Ronald E. Evans and Harrison M. Schmitt had the luxury of sleeping late to adjust their biological time clocks for an afternoon wakeup on the day they've trained for the last 16 months.

The launch crew ran into the usual number of minor and easily fixable problems — hose connections that sprung leaks, an air filter that didn't fit, a piece of scientific equipment that wasn't working right.

None of it was important enough to disrupt the minute-by-minute schedule as electronic clocks tick downward for the liftoff.

"The weather outlook continues to be favorable," the space agency said. "The forecast calls for partly cloudy skies with winds from 8-12 m.p.h. out of the south. The temperature in the vicinity of the launch pad should be in the 60s."

That should be good news for the 500,000 space buffs expected in the Cape Kennedy area in central Florida and millions of others in a 500-mile radius who will see the Saturn 5's 2,200-

Tag Peterson for foreign economic post

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Commerce Peter G. Peterson will leave his current position some time in January to take over a new government council in charge of all U.S. international economic policy, it was learned today.

Sources said the details of the council, which will be comparable to the National Security Council are still being worked out. But they said at a White House announcement that Peterson will be changing jobs in the near future.

The sources said the change has been in the cards for Peterson for some time since the administration decided it wanted to reorganize the way international economic policy is handled.

Peterson, a one-time boy wonder of business, was named secretary of Commerce less than a year ago when he succeeded Maurice Stans. Before that Peterson served as assistant to the President for international economic affairs.

Riber proposed that the instrument be repaired as soon as possible and that it be converted gradually to a theatre organ in order to create more interest in its use and in the training of more organists in the community.

The board not only pledged its support in the organ remodeling project, but urged that the superintendent study the situation to determine what the board can do to (1) help

Find lost boy near Georgetown

GEORGETOWN, Ohio (AP) — A 4-year-old boy was found by authorities today after a search of more than 15 hours in Brown County.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Holland of Georgetown had been sought since Monday evening, hours after the parents reported him missing.

The Ohio State Highway Patrol, Brown County Sheriff's office, police and fire units and rescue squads aided in the search.

Details on how and where the boy was located were not immediately available. Officials indicated he was unharmed.

The Fayette County Sheriff's Department sent five officers, John Hyer, Lowell Marvin, Larry Camp, Kenny Smith and Don Cox, to assist in the search Tuesday morning.

Sundry claims, solon's pay occupy Ohio's legislators

By PERRY SMITH
Associated Press Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Senate was to reconvene today for a floor vote on a $759,654 sundry claims bill while two House committees were to meet on other legislation facing the lame duck 109th General Assembly.

The nine sundry claims proposals going to the Senate for a vote include $452,000 to reimburse the movie industry for censorship fees it paid under protest for two years in the 1950s.

Since the state cannot be sued, the only recourse for persons with claims against the state is before the Sundry Claims Board. Any claims over $1,000 it approves are put into bill form for a floor vote.

The Senate is to meet at 1:30 p.m. The House Finance Committee is to meet at the same time. The House State Government Committee will meet at 8 p.m. A House floor session is set for 1 p.m. Wednesday.

Still up in the air is when and if a report from a state compensation commission calling for salary increases for legislators and county officials will be put into bill form and introduced.

Sen. Majority Leader Theodore Gray, R-3 Piqua, said the initial step must be taken this week "if something is going to be done—one way or the other."

Gray said the bill can be written with both legislators and county officials included. The only alternative, he said, is to drop the legislators and provide for only county officials.

Another developing problem is where the measure should be first introduced. Gray believes it should start in the

Viet talks said near conclusion

PARIS (AP) — The negotiating session today between Henry A. Kissinger and Le Duc Tho was canceled this morning, but U.S. and North Vietnamese spokesmen said they would meet again Wednesday.

No explanation was given for cancellation of today's meeting. There was speculation that the announcement was a ruse to mislead newsmen, and that President Nixon's national security adviser and the Hanoi Politburo member were planning a secret rendezvous.

Eleven days ago during the last round of Kissinger-Tho negotiations, the North Vietnamese announced that the two men would not meet that day. But they slipped off to a suburban site and conferred for an hour.

Kissinger and Tho resumed negotiations Monday after a nine-day recess. They met for a total of five hours amid a complete news blackout. But officials in Washington said the talks are moving to a climax.

Tho and Xuan Thuy, the head of the North Vietnamese delegation to the Paris peace talks met this morning with Mrs. Nguyen Thi Binh, the chief of the Viet Cong delegation to the talks, and other members of her delegation.

Kissinger conferred for an hour Monday night with Pham Dang Lam, the head of the South Vietnamese delegation to the talks.

Meanwhile, the South Vietnamese government kept up its campaign for the cease-fire agreement to include provision for withdrawal of all North Vietnamese troops in South Vietnam and safeguards to insure that the proposed National Council for Reconciliation and Concord won't turn into a coalition government.

These Saigon demands were outlined once again by South Vietnam's chief delegate to the weekly Paris peace talks, Pham Dang Lam, in a meeting with French journalists.

Despite South Vietnam's continuing insistence on these points, the belief was widespread that the United States is going to agree to the cease-fire this time, regardless of how little the North Vietnamese are ready to concede.

3 men escape Perry County jail

NEW LEXINGTON, Ohio (AP) — Three men believed armed and considered dangerous escaped early today from the Perry County Jail here, sheriff's deputies said.

Charles Mayhorne, 31, of Columbus, Edward North Jr., 28, of Haydensville, and Richard Mikula, 26, of New Straitsville, were believed on foot in the area, deputies said.

Mayhorne and North were being held on a charge of breaking and entering and Mikula was charged with shooting at a police officer, deputies said.

The three apparently sawed their way through bars to escape, deputies said.

"The House would like for the bill to build up momentum in the Senate with the idea it would then have fewer problems in the House," Gray said.

The pay commission, appointed by Gov. John Gilligan and headed by former state finance director Howard Collier, a Republican, recommended raising the pay of legislators from $12,750 to $14,000 a year.

Deaths, Funerals

Claude H. Cox

JAMESTOWN — Claude H. Cox, 70, died unexpectedly at 5 p.m. Monday in his home here.

A native of Fayette County, he had spent most of his later life in Jamestown. He had been employed for 17 years by the Silver Creek Township Highway Department and Cemetery Board. He was a member of the Friends Church.

He is survived by his wife, Maxine Wilson Cox; three sons, Claudie, of Xenia, Fredrick, of Springfield, and Leslie, at home; four daughters, Mrs. Alice Faye Dailey, of Bowersville, Mrs. Glinda Hartman, of Waynesville, and Mrs. Pamela Frost and Mrs. Nedra Jones, both of Jamestown; 15 grandchildren; a brother, Leonard Cox, of Bowersville; and three sisters, Mrs. Marie Bobbitt, of Bowersville, Mrs. Louise Beekman, of Jamestown, and Mrs. Minnie Mendenhall, of Xenia.

Services will be held at 1:30 p.m. Thursday in the Powers Funeral Home here, with the Rev. Richard Recher, pastor of the Friends Meeting, officiating. Burial will be in Jamestown Cemetery. Friends may call from 3 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m. Wednesday at the funeral home.

Infant Williams

SABINA — Services are being arranged at the Littleton Funeral Home for Beth Williams, infant daughter of Gordon L. and Phyllis J. Reynolds Williams, Rt. 3, who was dead at birth in Fayette Memorial Hospital at 8:30 p.m. Sunday.

The Williams have resided in the area for six months. The father is an assistant professor of biology at Wilmington College.

The infant is survived by her parents and a brother, Eric, at home, and her grandparents.

MRS. ANNA R. PIERCE — Services for Mrs. Anna R. Pierce, 86, of 817 Lakeview Ave., widow of Equilla Lee Pierce, were held at 1:30 p.m. Monday in the Morrow Funeral Home, Jeffersonville. The Rev. Keith Wooley, of the Hickory Lane Church of Christ, officiated. Mrs. Pierce died Friday.

Pallbearers for the burial in Fairview Cemetery were James and Ellick LaVernier, George and Harvey Pierce, Charles Grubbs and Roy Snyder Jr.

MRS. LOWELL HIGMAN — Services for Mrs. Mary Katherine Higman, 28, of Williamsport, were held at 1:30 p.m. Monday in the Kirkpatrick Funeral Home, Washington C.H., with the Rev. Charles J. Richmond, pastor of the South Side Church of Christ, officiating. Mrs. Higman, wife of Lowell Higman, died Friday in Riverside Hospital, Columbus. She was fatally burned Nov. 27 in a fire which destroyed the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Taylor, at Jasper Mills.

Pallbearers for the burial in Springlawn Cemetery, Williamsport, were Charles Jackson, Robert Bain, Bill Frederick, Neil Fitch, Richard Speakman and Neil Moore.

Mainly About People

William Knisley, 429 Blackstone Ave., is a surgical patient in University Hospital, Columbus. He is in Room 891.

H.E. Barnes, Hillsboro publisher, is a medical patient at Christ Hospital, Cincinnati, where he was admitted Friday. He is in Room 869.

Jack L. Pollard, of Grove City, formerly a resident of Washington C.H., is a surgical patient in Riverside Hospital, Columbus. He is in Room 5025.

Richard J. Kilian, formerly superintendent of the printing department of the National Cash Register Co. plant here, has been transferred by the company to its Systemedia plant at Mount Joy, Pa., as director of personnel. He was first transferred from here to Arlington, Tex., then back to the Washington C.H. plant just before it was closed. He then was transferred to the plant in Jacksonville, Fla. The Kilians' address is N. 1539 Passey Lane, Lancaster, Pa. 17603.

New Holland eyes police protection

NEW HOLLAND — Village Council Monday night passed an ordinance to set up a revenue sharing fund to participate in later allocations from the federal government and adopted a resolution requesting an allocation from the $5 permissive motor vehicle tax fund from the Fayette County Board of Commissioners to apply to the cost of the resale job on McClain Street. (Part of New Holland is in Fayette County.)

The old problem of police protection for the village came up again when Council agreed to discuss the matter with Pickaway County Sheriff Dwight Radcliff. Indications are that Sheriff Radcliff may be asked to consider assigning a deputy to New Holland, or his advice may be sought concerning applying part of the hoped-for revenue sharing money to the cost of a village police department.

New Vienna farm pioneer succumbs

Bob Braun Show booked for Fair

The 1973 Fayette County Fair, July 22-28, will be opened with the Bob Braun Show, familiar to nearly everyone in this area through television.

When the agreement was reached at a board meeting Monday night, one member of the Fair Board commented that he felt this would be one of the most popular entertainments ever offered at the exposition here.

The cast will include Braun, the master of ceremonies, Cliff Lash and his orchestra, Marian Spellman, Rob Ryder and several others. A two-hour show will be presented at 7:30 p.m. Sunday, July 22, in front of the grandstand. President Eddie Kirk and Secretary George Finley are to finalize the

Defendant slugs attorney, shackled to hear sentence

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)—Television would have a tough time matching the courtroom here Monday. The defendant wound up without an attorney and being shackled in a wheel chair.

Robert Mitchell, 30, of Cincinnati triggered the wild ending to his robbery trial before a jury in Hamilton County Common Pleas Court when he said he hadn't been represented properly and promptly slugged his attorney, George Bunyan.

"This man can no longer represent me," yelled Mitchell, who ended up

Business changes Kiwanians' topic

What has long been known as the "mail order business" is now assuming the dignity of a modern world as "direct marketing." That, in substance, was what Bob Boatman, who has a direct marketing business in Bainbridge, told the Kiwanis Club after its dinner Monday night in Lafayette Inn.

Boatman said the printed word can sell more merchandise over a wider geographical area.

Computers, he said, have added speed and sophistication to direct marketing. He also pointed out that many direct market managements are now also using newspaper inserts, offering free long distance telephone call orders and accepting of credit card accounts.

Richard Maddux was the program chairman.

The Rev. Gerald Wheat, conducted the business session at which George Gibbs, of the house committee, reported that a majority of the members had voted to change the weekly meetings from Monday to Tuesday at the same time and place. Guy Foster and Howard Ford were delegated to attend the Key Club meeting Thursday. Jeff Vandergrif, of MTHS, represented the Key Club at this meeting. The president reminded that the Christmas party will be held Dec. 19 in the First Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. Wilbur Bullock, new pastor of McNair Presbyterian Church, was the guest of Norman Armbrust. Four members of the West Jefferson Club also attended the meeting.

Two slightly hurt in freeway crash

A two car crash on I-71, about four miles north of Ohio 41, Monday night resulted in heavy damage and two minor injuries, the Ohio Highway Patrol reported.

Patrolman Roger Schafer said Thomas L. Daugherty, 44, of Norton, and Paul H. South, 21, of Etna, were hurt slightly when the cars they were driving collided in the southbound lane of the freeway about 8:30 p.m. Neither man required treatment.

According to Shaffer, the two cars had just passed another vehicle when the South car pulled in front of the Daugherty car in the right lane. South then applied his brakes, forcing the Daugherty car into the left lane where he collided broadside with South's out of control vehicle.

South, cited for reckless operation, told officers that he had mistaken Daugherty's car for one belonging to another man and had attempted to force a rear-end collision by hitting his brakes.

Both cars were extensively damaged.

Octa Council sets up revenue-sharing fund

OCTA — Village Council Monday night established a revenue - sharing trust fund, required if the community is to receive federal funds, and passed a resolution asking the county for $535.04 in permissive piggyback auto license tax funds to pay for materials used in repairing streets a month ago.

Council also approved the annual payment of village administrative salaries. Mayor P. W. Gookenbarger receives $50 per year for his services as the clerk and treasurer. Councilmen are paid annually at the rate of $3 per meeting.

Marshall Grange Yule party Thursday night

JEFFERSONVILLE — The annual Christmas party and $1 gift exchange will be held at 8 p.m. Thursday in Grange Hall here by Marshall Grange. Women are to bring gifts suitable for women and the men gifts suitable for men.

agreement this week.

Acting on a recommendation by Frank Weade, chairman of the buildings committee, the board agreed to spend approximately $3,000 to repair the roof on the grandstand and to patch an area of the roof of the Mahan Building.

Directors also took action to increase the gate admission to 75 cents. Admission for children under 12 will remain at 25 cents. General admission for adults had been 50 cents. The board agreed to continue its policy of free admission until 4 p.m. each day.

The board also made final plans for participation in the Ohio Fair Managers Association annual meeting in Columbus Jan. 2-4.

being convicted of the robbery of two financial institutions here earlier this year.

"This man will no longer represent you," Bunyan, with blood dripping from the mouth, replied.

Permitted to withdraw from the case, Bunyan left the courtroom.

Judge Frank Gusweiler told Mitchell he would not appoint another lawyer, prompting the defendant to say, "That's unconstitutional." Then Mitchell asked to be excused from the courtroom to call the American Civil Liberties Union.

Mitchell was denied that request, continued to interrupt the court, and was ordered returned to the county jail until after the jury returned a verdict.

The incident occurred as attorneys were preparing to make closing statements. Both sides waived the procedure, the jury took the case and deliberated only about 45 minutes before returning a guilty verdict.

Gusweiler sent instructions to have Mitchell returned to the courtroom for sentencing, but the defendant declined to return.

Authorities put him in a wheelchair, shackled his legs, and put his hands in handcuffs behind his back.

He was sentenced to life imprisonment at hard labor on one robbery charge, and drew a 10-25 year sentence on the other.

Earlier this year, Mitchell was paroled after having served 9½ years in prison for armed robbery.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The National Weather Service's weather summary for Ohio:

It was cloudy over the state during the night with light precipitation falling mainly over northern sections. Temperatures showed a marked contrast between the northwest and the southeast sections of Ohio. In the northwest temperatures during the night ranged in the upper 20s and lower 30s, while in the southeast the mercury ranged in the mid to upper 50s.

The cold air holding over the northwest caused the light precipitation to fall as freezing rain or drizzle. A low pressure system moving northeastward through the Ohio River valley caused more significant precipitation Monday and the light precipitation during the night.

A chance of snow northeast Thursday and a chance of rain or snow over the state Friday and Saturday. Lows in the teens Thursday and in the 20s Friday and Saturday. Highs in the 20s and low 30s Thursday and in the 30s and low 40s Friday and Saturday.

Treatment plant officials to attend state workshop

Orville Dixon, city treatment plant superintendent, and Richard Dixon, his assistant, will attend a workshop in Columbus Friday sponsored by the Environmental Protection Agency of the Ohio Department of Health.

The seminar will include a general briefing for plant operators in new legislation, problem areas in treatment of sanitary and storm waste and financing of programs.

in the remodeling project and (2) authorize in the way of programs to create more interest in the instrument and the training of organists.

PERSONNEL MATTERS

The board employed Rodger Mickle and David Elliott as elementary basketball coaches who will launch their program as soon as possible. The program was resumed following numerous requests from parents. Each man will receive an increment of $150.

The board also discussed the possibility of establishing an intramural program in the Junior High School to be conducted twice or three times weekly immediately after school and on Saturday mornings. Superintendent Nestor said an interest survey is being conducted and the coaching staff has volunteered to conduct the program.

The board authorized band director Charles Shaffer to attend the Mid-West National Music Convention in Chicago Dec. 13-15 and authorized payment of his expenses. Superintendent Nestor also urged the board to consider this as part of a new teacher visitation and innovative practice program in which "teachers go out in search of innovative ideas for our system."

The board granted a leave of absence to Mrs. Violet Williams, a school bus driver who is ill; discussed the difficulty in finding substitute bus drivers; authorized the utilization of Miss Terry Knisley, a student at Wilmington College, as a student teacher of history in the Senior High School under the supervision of Donald Moore; employed Mrs. Margaret James as an elementary substitute teacher; and adopted a resolution agreeing to serve as fiscal agent for state reimbursement for a speech and hearing therapist used jointly by Miami Trace and the city schools.

STADIUM LIGHTS

The board adopted a resolution to permit drawing on the permanent improvement fund for remodeling the lighting at Gardner Park Stadium in an amount not to exceed $5,000. The board will receive financial assistance in the project from other sources, such as the Washington Athletic Facilities Corp. (WAFCO) and possible the high school athletic fund.

Earlier, the board authorized the project in which new poles and lights will be erected and rewired. Superintendent Nestor informed the board that an outside crane may have to be used to set the new poles.

ADULT EDUCATION

Robert Highfield, board president, announced that an adult education conference will be held Dec. 14 in Springfield for those schools participating in Mott Foundation programs. He urged attendance at the meeting in order to hopefully launch a similar program in the schools here for which funds are available.

In the adult education program, school buildings are used on a seven-day-a-week basis as a "community school," he said. Scheduled to attend the meeting are Highfield, Nestor, Fred Domenico and Gene Biennz.

MISCELLANEOUS MATTERS

The board was informed that the JNROTC unit at Washington High School was rated first in the Fourth Naval District, covering three states, and had the highest percentage of boys entering active duty (65.2 per cent) following graduation than any other unit in the district.

Learned that the City Teachers Association will meet with the board at 7 p.m. each third Monday and is to submit an agenda on Wednesday prior to each meeting.

Learned that the district's new bus has been placed into service after the art class at the senior high school painted the license numbers on the vehicle; Also, board member Domenico urged that either a compound be constructed for parking buses or that permission be gained to park the buses in the City Garage compound to reduce vandalism damage;

Learned that a second half-day of parent-teacher conferences has tentatively been scheduled for March 1.

Approved the use of the auditorium by the Kiwanis Club Jan. 21 for a public concert by the Capital University Glee Club, and the use of the Junior High School gymnasium on Wednesday nights by a church basketball league;

Transferred a small amount of money within permanent improvement funds to close out a smaller account, and transferred $2,807.95 from Title III project funds to the general fund following reimbursement from the state;

Discussed the replacement of windows at Rose Avenue School and a formal objection against the issuance of a D-1 beer permit for an Elm Street restaurant filed with the Ohio Liquor Control Board;

Authorized one-way transportation by taxi from his home to an elementary school for a crippled child;

Discussed a drainage problem in the cafeteria at the Senior High School;

Received a report on a physical education conference in Dayton attended by Mrs. Nicola Eyre, physical education teacher at the high school; and Decided to meet at 7:30 p.m. Jan. 2 for the board's annual reorganization meeting.

Stock prices off slightly

NEW YORK (AP) — Prices slipped back in the stock market today in fairly active trading as the momentum of a two-day rally was halted. Profit-taking was reported on many stocks.

The noon Dow Jones average of 30 industrials was off 2.86 to 1,024.16, and declining issues took a lead of about 6 to 5 over gaining stocks.

The Big Board's volume leader was Southern Co., up ¼ to 21¾, mostly on a block of 150,000 shares at that price.

Eastman Kodak was up ⅞ to 140¼. Eastman advised retailers Monday that suggested prices on its new pocket camera would rise on Dec. 26.

The active list at the American Stock Exchange included Milgo Electronic, off ½ at 21. The issue gained ⅞ Monday on a report of improved earnings.

The noon New York Stock Exchange index was off .09 to 64.39.

The Amex's price-change index was down .02 to 26.67.

Merchants expect record Christmas sales

By JOHN CUNIFF

AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — As if he didn't have problems before, Santa Claus is facing the most serious logistics challenge of his life this year, and observers of serious mien and limited vision say he must trade his sleigh for a 747 jet.

It strains credulity, they say, to believe that anything less than that can transport the avalanche of gifts that are expected to tumble out of fireplaces on Christmas Eve.

Rising personal incomes, booming retail sales and surveys of buyer intentions indicate that more money will be spent this Christmas than ever before in history.

Retailers already are reporting sales between 8 and 9 per cent higher than a year ago, when the country was beginning to emerge from a recession, and they expect the percentage to be even higher in pre-Christmas weeks.

During the Thanksgiving week, traditional kickoff for the Christmas selling season, retail stores sold $8.88 million of merchandise, about 8 per cent higher than in 1971, although one per cent lower than in the preceding week.

Fueling the surge is a resumption of growth in personal incomes, which had been swamped by inflation for several years. While inflation continues on an abating scale, incomes have grown strongly through the year.

In addition, and despite a 5.5 per cent jobless rate, more people are at work today than at any time in the nation's history.

Surveys indicate that the buying mood is strong almost everywhere, despite the irregular geographical pattern of prosperity that is often disguised by the national statistics.

A study by Sindlinger & Co. of Swarthmore, Pa., indicates that the country's total gift list will be enlarged by 25 per cent. More people will give more gifts to more people this year than ever before, said Albert Sindlinger, president.

Sindlinger, whose staff asks thousands of questions by telephone seven days a week, claims to have found good news for aunts, uncles and cousins.

It was this tier of relatives, he said, who were cut from gift lists during the past three years of budget-pinching. Now they are being restored.

"This gift might not be as big but more people will receive them," said Sindlinger.

Some retailers would be inclined to differ with Sindlinger on the size of gifts because many of them feel big and exotic items have again caught the eye of shoppers. They are being heavily promoted.

In the previous three years some retailers made little attempt to attract interest in very expensive items, feeling they were ill-suited to both the mood and the pocketbook of consumers.

Now, both mood and pocketbook have changed, and the retailers, advertising media, aunts, uncles, cousins and kids are likely to benefit. The problems belong mainly to Old Nick—and probably to some parents who bought on credit.

Vice presidential choice study

The Democratic Party has at long last begun to do something about the serious and vexing problem of how to select vice presidential candidates. If the Republicans do not do likewise, they should at very least plan to take advantage of any good ideas the Democrats come up with.

The Democratic National Committee was obviously stimulated (goaded might be the more appropriate word) by the fiasco of handing Sen. Thomas F. Eagleton the nomination at the national convention last summer and then whisking it out of his grasp. That whole traumatic episode dramatized the weakness of the system both major parties use for selecting the number two man on the national ticket.

The word "system" is something of a misnomer when applied to the present custom. Both parties essentially leave the matter in the hands of the presidential nominee.

He makes his choice in the frantic convention atmosphere, rarely having given the matter much systematic thought during the period of straining to win the nomination.

The convention then ratifies his choice without question. For practical purposes, the convention delegates have little to say about it; they certainly tend not to assert themselves once the candidate has tagged his man.

This attitude and practice spring from a long history of regarding the vice president as being of little consequence. From the earliest days of the republic, men holding the office have vied in denigrating it. This has resulted in the present absurd and dangerous inattention to the office of vice president at the nominating conventions.

Absurd and dangerous because the old cliché about the vice president being only a heartbeat away from the presidency is true. Should the occupant of the White House die or become incapacitated, the man so cavalierly selected as his running mate is catapulted into the presidency. Nor is this a rare occurrence; it has happened repeatedly.

For the most part the nation has been lucky. We have been spared the dismal consequence of having some of the vice presidential nonentities thrust into the highest office.

There is no guarantee that the nation's luck will hold. That is why the political parties ought to busy themselves —ought to have done so long ago — at devising a much better method of selecting vice presidential candidates. The Democratic commission to be headed by Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey and charged with bringing in recommendations by Jan. 1, 1974, is a welcome start.

WASHINGTON CALLING . . . by Marquis Childs

The hard-working president

WASHINGTON — Historians of the future are certain to say one thing of President Nixon. He is very likely the hardest-working man ever to hold the office. Conscientiously, seriously, he works day in and day out, rarely putting down the burden of what Harry Truman called the impossible office.

This is true despite what seems to be the diffusion of time and place between Key Biscayne, San Clemente and Camp David. Wherever he is there is the yellow pad on which he writes, his brow knit in concentration. There are the files and there are the first assistants, foremost among them Rose Mary Woods, the faithful secretary at his side throughout virtually his entire career.

The President's retreat to Camp David says a lot about the temperament of the man. For perfectly valid reasons Camp Davis is a good place to concentrate and work. It is 29 minutes door to door from the White House to the camp in the Catocin Mountains of Maryland and, once there, intruders are kept away.

THE WHITE HOUSE, as one of the President's close advisers put it, has become a kind of squirrel cage. Interruptions are frequent no matter how great the zeal of his protectors. At Camp David he is removed from most interruptions. His aides hesitate to call him there, whereas in the White House they might pick up the phone. Instead they take decisions themselves rather than ask him for help.

That being the valid practical reason for Camp David, the President, given his curious need for self-justification — the need, it would appear, to answer some inner insecurity — had nevertheless to expound on the virtues of solitude on a mountaintop.

It was easier, he said, on top of a mountain to get on top of the job. His more derisive critics are calling his exposition the Sermon on the Mount.

The contrast with the previous tenants is striking. It was initiated by Franklin D. Roosevelt, who called it, after a popular novel of the time, Shangri-La; a quiet, woodsy place to escape the cares of office. Harry Truman went there infrequently for relaxation and an occasional poker game with friends.

President Eisenhower took his guest, Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, to the retreat he had renamed Camp David after his grandson, for walks in the woods where they could talk in complete privacy.

PRESIDENT Nixon's busy work at Camp David has, if nothing else, produced daily headlines. It may, as he hopes, strengthen and thin down the vastly swollen apparatus of government. But whatever the outcome for the executive branch, and sometimes the effort on the mountaintop seems to be a furious spinning of the wheels in place, the Congress in Control of the Democrats will remain unreconstructed and unrationized.

That is the nub of the matter, looking down the road to the congressional elections of 1974. Economy is a lovely thing in theory, and the President's action in cutting in half the funds authorized by the President's veto, will win pious encomiums.

When it comes, however, to individual projects in cities and congressional districts decapitated by this action reprisals are bound to follow.

AT THIS distance one prediction seems safe. The Democrats two years from now will increase their majorities in Senate and House. This was the history under the last Republican President prior to Mr. Nixon.

Today In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Tuesday, Dec. 5, the 340th day of 1972. There are 26 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1933, 14 years of Prohibition ended in the United States. Utah became the 36th state to ratify the 21st constitutional amendment, which repealed the 18th.

On this date: In 1492, Columbus discovered the Island of Santo Domingo.

In 1782, the eighth American president, Martin Van Buren, was born in Kinderhook, N.Y.

In 1832, President Andrew Jackson was re-elected, defeating Henry Clay. In 1848, President James K. Polk announced that gold had been discovered in California. The Gold Rush of '49 followed.

In 1934, 66 persons were executed in the Soviet Union after being accused of plotting against the Stalin government.

In 1955, Negroes in Montgomery, Ala., began a bus boycott after a black woman had been arrested for refusing to yield her seat to a white man.

Ten years ago: Yugoslavia's President Tito was in the Soviet Union for a vacation and talks with Soviet leaders.

Five years ago: New York police made 264 arrests as antiwar demonstrators attempted to close the armed forces induction center in Manhattan.

One year ago: In the U.N. Security Council, the Soviet Union vetoed a resolution calling for a cease-fire in hostilities between India and Pakistan over Kashmir.

Today's birthdays: Republican Sen. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina is 70. Novelist Vincent Sheean is 73.

Thought for today: Meet success like a gentleman and disaster like a man — Lord Birkenhead, English statesman, 1872-1930.

OPIAG studies center

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Public Interest Action Group (OPIAG) may open an auto safety research center or a buyers' action center here, OPIAG director Joyce Kady says.

The possibility will be governed by Cincinnati's response to a goal of raising $50,000, Mrs. Kady said in a recent stop here.

OPIAG already has auto centers in Columbus and Cleveland. They handle motorists' complaints about mechanical problems with cars.

Mrs. Kady said the group, established by consumer crusader Ralph Nader, hopes to raise $100,000 statewide, with $50,000 coming from outside of Cincinnati.

Letters To Editor

EDITOR, RECORD-HERALD

As chairman of the City Beautification Committee, I especially want to hand a bouquet of thanks to Mr. Richard Willis for being responsible for turning one of our antiquated corners of the downtown into a most attractive addition to our community.

Our committee, consisting of some of the leaders in our city, has spent many hours planning, making suggestions to and interviewing store owners. This spring we hope to see some of our suggestions carried out.

Our committee isn't large so, alone, can't do the things that need to be done. It takes every individual working with us. Plan now to help.

Again, Mr. Willis, — thanks to you.
Martha Reiff
247 E. Court St.

EDITOR, RECORD-HERALD: We would like to offer our sincere thanks to everyone who purchased a ticket from us for the Nov. 12 matinee at the Columbus Springfield Dinner Theatre. Because of you, and all the mothers who worked on this project, we showed a profit of $605. When this is combined with the $260 profit from our summer bake sale, we will be able to present each of our five (5) kindergarten centers with $167 plus one cto (for sick children).

We would also like to express our appreciation to all those who have made our new kindergarten program possible: the county school board; Superintendent Guy Foster; Elementary Supervisor June Slaughter; and our kindergarten teachers, with their enduring patience.

Open Letter

TO: Mrs. Arch O. Riber and Donald C. Riber

DEAR SANTA'S HELPERS: The Courthouse has never looked more beautiful at night. The lighted green wreaths and those gorgeous red candles are just the touch to set the spirit of Christmas for the whole community. They can be seen and enjoyed by most of the residents in the county, at least those in sight distance of the city. And, those lighted Christmas tree panels at the lower level facing Court Street are a sight to behold. We, like Santa Claus, have the power to observe most things taking place and couldn't help but notice you, Mrs. Riber, busily working on the candles, on your hands and knees scrubbing last year's decorations and cleaning up sawdust in your kitchen where Don constructed the wreaths. We also noted the laborious task performed in carrying the materials to the Courthouse belfry and installing them. Your deeds will not go unrewarded, for you already have a great gift — the true Christmas spirit.

Hal Boyle . . . Make quick check on status

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — You can't fall down as long as you are going up.
So it's the better part of wisdom now and then to pause and take stock of yourself and your career. One of the best ways to do this is to check your prestige, that mystical and somewhat mythical gauge by which Americans judge each other.

Of course, you could hire a team of efficiency and psychological experts to go over you and make an estimate. But that would take weeks of time and thousands of dollars. But you can make your own judgement of your prestige by taking a small inventory of your recent achievements and failures.

How? Well, here are a few suggestions.

You are undoubtedly winning friends, doing well on your job and creating a good community impression if —

Real estate values go up when you move into a new neighborhood.

Your old friends loyally say you're the only man they know whose success hasn't gone to his head — but they secretly hate your guts anyway. Because true-blue friends can forgive each other anything except success.

Your wife keeps a candle burning night and day at each side of the framed photograph of you she has hung in her bedroom.

Your mistress does the same thing in her love nest, except that in her photograph you are wearing a dashing bowtie, and she has written across it "I love you, hero" in red lipstick.

Your page-long biography in "Who's Who in America" is printed in capital letters

If you aren't yet the boss of your firm, you already have designed the kind of personalized office stationery you want when you do take over the helm.

When you walk up to the water cooler, the gang around it starts to smile appreciatively because they know you're going to tell them the best new joke of the day.

Your teen-age children always listen to you with respect — and sometimes do what you tell them.

That's the bright side of the status picture. How about the dismal side?

Well, you can be pretty sure your prestige has slipped to the zero point if —

You are still so disliked in the penitentiary you served time in that inmates won't let you belong to its alumni association.

Your wife keeps a photo of her high school sweetheart on her bedside night table.

The pretty waitress at the beanery where you have lunch always tries to get the homely waitress to serve you.

When the usher who takes up the offering during church services passes you, he plucks a dollar bill from the plate himself and quietly puts it into the outside breast pocket of your coat.

Your boss usually mistakes you for one of two other guys.

Man, you just don't need help — you need rescue.

The flying wedge was outlawed in football when President Theodore Roosevelt threatened to ban the game by executive edict unless players quit being so rough.

Dear Abby:

Life without love - the only real tragedy

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I get so riled when I read what some women write to you and complain about. Let me give you a sample of what my life has been like:

When I was a year old, my mother ran off with another man. My father boarded me out, and when I was 12 he remarried again and I went to live with him and my stepmother. That marriage was no good, either. My father was a big drinker and used me sexually so I got married at 14 just to get away from home. I had three miscarriages and one live child from that marriage, then my husband left me for another woman. I was only 21. Then I married again and I thought my luck had changed, but no sooner did we have a decent house and nice furniture than we got burned out and lost everything. No insurance.

Last March, I was raped by two men on my way home from work and they broke my glasses. Then my husband got laid off from work, and on the way to pick up his unemployment check, some kid in a jalopy hit him and totaled our car.

Right now I am in the hospital having a hysterectomy. Every word of this is true, but there are plenty of people who are worse off than I am, because I have a man who loves me and I love him.

LUCKY IN OHIO
DEAR LUCKY: Bless you. Matching your experiences in one lifetime would be a job for Job.

DEAR ABBY: I thoroughly enjoy reading your column concerning what some nurses in various hospitals around the country prefer to be called. However, there is a group among registered nurses that prefer to be recognized by a title not reflected in your column. We are known to family, friends, professional peers, and patients as "Mr."

And we represent about two per cent of the R. N. population of the nation.

RALPH A. GEORGE, R. N.
DEAR RALPH: You mean that two per cent of all the registered nurses in the U. S. A. are MALE? Good night, Nurse!

DEAR ABBY: I am a registered nurse, and I was irked by the letter signed "IRKED NURSE IN N. J." — she didn't like being called "nurse" by her patients.

How about the nurse who refers to her patients as "the gallbladder in bed 6," or "the prostate in bed 9?"

I think the impersonal manner which some nurses treat their patients today is disgraceful.

Auto odometer tampering case set

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Commerce Department has presented its first case of automobile odometer tampering prohibited under the Ohio Consumer Sales Practices Act of 1972 to the attorney general's office for prosecution.

The new law forbids the turning back of odometers on used cars for sale. State regulations require the previous car's owner to sign a document stating the true mileage of the vehicle.

Walnut Hill Church setting for wedding

MR. AND MRS. R. D. BARRETT JR.

Miss Pamela Jo Snyder and Robert D. Barrett Jr. exchanged marriage vows in the Walnut Hill Church of Christ in Christian Union Church, Barger Rd., near Leesburg. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. David Snyder, of Greenfield, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Barrett, of Leesburg. The Rev. Joe Johnson, of Jeffersonville, performed the ceremony before an altar decorated with candelabra entwined with greenery and tied with satin bows.

Mrs. Danny Snyder, organist, and Mrs. John Grice, vocalist, presented a prelude of nuptial music.

The bride wore a full length empire style gown of acetate and nylon lace with scalloped neckline, sequin trim and fitted sleeves tapered at the wrists. The A-line gown was scalloped at the hemline and accented with a satin ribbon sash at the waist. She carried a bouquet of white roses and carnations.

Mrs. Judy Overly, of New Martinsburg, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a formal length chiffon gown in avocado with shirred bodice and cuffs and cotton floral trim at the waistline. Her sister, Miss Ruth Snyder, Miss Dee Dee Snyder, cousin, and Miss Debbie Barrett, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids. All wore orange floor-length gowns styled like that of the matron of honor. Each carried an arrangement of orange, yellow and bronze poms poms and baby's breath tied with matching streamers. Little Miss Sandy Barrett was the flower girl. She wore a yellow frock and carried a basket filled with mixed colored pompoms.

Steve Barrett served as best man for his brother. Rick Henson and Gary Whited were the ushers.

Mrs. Snyder chose for her daughter's wedding a brown dress and jacket ensemble and the groom's mother wore a brown dress with bone accessories. Both wore corsages of orange, green and yellow daisy pom poms.

Mrs. Marla Short and Mrs. Cindy Jackson were hostesses at a reception in the community room of the Leesburg Federal Savings and Loan Association.

The new Mrs. Barrett, a 1971 Fairfield High School graduate, is a secretary at the Extension Service in Hillsboro. Her husband, also a graduate of Fairfield High School, is an employee of Henson's Millwright in Leesburg.

Following a wedding trip to Florida, the couple is residing in Leesburg.

Royal Chapter, OES, installs new officers

One hundred and twelve members and guests were present for the annual installation of officers of Royal Chapter No. 29, Order of the Eastern Star, in the Masonic Temple.

Mrs. Ned Kinzer was given the obligations as worthy matron; Robert Whitaker, worthy patron; Mrs. Jessie Dene, association matron; Marvin Thornburg, associate patron; Mrs. Deane Powell, secretary; Mrs. Marie Smith Mace, treasurer; Mrs. Irvin Reeves, conductress; Mrs. Joan Painter, associate conductress; Mrs. Bonnie Arnold, chaplain; Mrs. Margaret Hurtt, marshal; Miss Nancy Hurtt, organist; Mrs. Helen Moore, Adah; Miss Verna Williams, Ruth; Mrs. Helen Roe, Esther; Mrs. Mildred Terrell, Martha; Mrs. Lucille Ellis, Electa; Mrs. Lillian Williams, warder; Mrs. Helen Cook, sentinel; and Mrs. Mildred Whittington and Mrs. Joyce Bower, pages. The installing grand officer was Mrs. Marvin Thornburg; inviting marshal, Mrs. Dorothy Dellinger; installing grand marshalls, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Radcliffe; grand conductess, Mrs. Mildred Seymour; grand chaplain, Mrs. Eleanor Six; grand organist and gradn warder, Miss Ethel Stewardson; and grand sentinel, Deane Powell.

Honored guests were Mrs. Marvin Thornburg, past grand matron and grand trustee; Miss Marie L. Hamilton, chairman of registration of general grand chapter, Mrs. Leatha Malott, deputy grand matron of District 23; Mrs. Hilda Williams, district 21; Mrs. Nancy Buckle, district 28; Mrs. Wanda Hooks, grand representative of Washington; and David Six, president of the Board of Trustees of the OES Home;

A salad, coffee and punch were served from a table decorated for the star point colors. Mrs. Hazel Thompson and Mrs. Bonnie Arnold presided.

Twins given birthday party

Christina and Cheryl Hutchinson, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Hutchinson, 317 Eastern Ave., were honored on their sixth birthday Sunday at their home. A party was given by their parents and they received many pretty gifts.

Helping them celebrate were their grandparents, Russell Hutchinson Sr., of Stoutsville, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Meredith, of Jeffersonville, and Donald Hutchinson, Mrs. Rose Brown and sons, Will and Tom, of Stoutsville, Joe Bone, of Lancaster, and Deborah Brown.

Mrs. Meriweather to entertain club

Mrs. Robert Meriweather will be hostess for the meeting of the Fayette Garden Club at 1:30 p.m. Friday. The assisting hostesses will be Mrs. C.S. Kelley and Mrs. Willard Bitzer.

Your Horoscope

By FRANCES DRAKE

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 6

Aries
(March 21 to April)
Note whether you are treading the sure road, the right one. There is always a day for reviewing, and this may be it. You may hear some good news from afar.

TAURUS
(April 21 to May 21)
Venus, still favorable, stimulates your individuality, promises new opportunities. Stress your innate artistry, industriousness and sincerity.

GEMINI
(May 22 to June 21)
Here is a top-flight day for all activities. Let your inspiration and intuition guide you in preparing for busy days ahead.

CANCER
(June 22 to July 23)
If you feel that you are going at too fast a pace, slow down or you will jeopardize efficiency. A better-than-average day if you employ your proficiency and know-how.

LEO
(July 24 to Aug. 23)
A good word from the right source may enable you to gain the recognition you have been waiting for. Business and financial matters highly favored.

VIRGO
Miami University
wins court test

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP) — Miami University has the right to prohibit its students from owning or operating a motor vehicle in nearby Oxford, Judge Fred Cramer of Butler County Common Pleas Court says.

Cramer ruled Monday in a suit brought by Robert Destro, a Miami student, who refused to pay a $15 fine imposed by the university for violating student motor vehicle regulations by parking a car within the limits of the town of Oxford.

The batfish apparently walks on the bottom instead of swimming through water.

(Aug. 24 to Sept. 23)

Do not panic if certain things go wrong, get out of hand. That's when the practical, level-headed Virgoan usually shows his mettle. Just maintain your perspectives and hold on to your sense of humor.

LIBRA
(Sept. 24 to Oct. 23)
Check and re-check before you assume something will be a good risk. In purchases, sound for hidden values — or lack of them.

SCORPIO
(Oct. 24 to Nov. 22)
Engage in no explosive tactics or "surprises" which could take others off guard unpleasantly. Don't bank on achieving more than usual gains at the moment, either.

SAGITTARIUS
(Nov. 23 to Dec. 21)
Progress indicated for those of you who have been heeding signals, watching for advantages and using them commendably. A new note of optimism is well warranted.

CAPRICORN
(Dec. 22 to Jan. 20)
There may have been ups and downs in some things important to you lately, but the general picture now holds much opportunity to advance.

AQUARIUS
(Jan. 21 to Feb. 19)
There are numerous ways to further your interests now. Earnestly solicit support for views and measures intended to keep things going the way you wish.

PISCES
(Feb. 20 to March 20)
Your intuition is usually more than keen enough to help in handling complex situations, but it may need some sharpening now, when you COULD face unusual complications.

YOU BORN TODAY are among the few Sagittarians who would probably make a greater success in the arts or one of the professions than in the business world. Literature, painting, music and (or) the theater should have great appeal to you, but you could also succeed, if properly trained, in the law, statesmanship or science. Your loyalty, integrity and generosity are outstanding.

Christmas basket 'Clearing House' slated Dec. 13

The annual Christmas Basket Clearing House will be held this year on Dec. 13, at 9 a.m. in the Chamber of Commerce office, 147 S. Fayette St.

The Clearing House is a community effort involving public agencies which are knowledgeable of community needs and organizations, groups and individuals who desire to provide

Kilmer says President hurting grid team
WASHINGTON (AP) — Washington Redskins quarterback Billy Kilmer says President Nixon is "really hurting us" by being a vocal fan of his hometown team.

In a Washington Post article Sunday, Kilmer was quoted as saying the President is "something else. He calls all the time. He even called the coach on election night to talk about the game."

assurance that no person or family in the county will be without food and comfort at this season.

Representatives of the agencies are invited to meet for the purpose of providing baskets for all worthy persons and reducing the unintentional duplications that often lead to others being forgotten.

A card file of applicants is kept by the Community Action Commission. Anyone wishing to receive a basket or who has knowledge of someone who may need one should call the Community Action Outreach office, 143½ N. Main St., or phone 335-7977 and provide the information. Those who are donating baskets and are unable to be represented at the Clearing House are invited to submit a list of the persons to whom they are donating.

Names submitted will be kept confidential except in the event of a duplication. In this case, the second donor will be informed that the name has been taken, thereby releasing the second basket (if the donor so desires) to a less fortunate person or family.

It is not the intent or purpose of the Clearing House to in any way dictate to, or interfere with, the freedom of choice of any individual or group in the matter of giving gifts at this or any other season. It is a community effort to provide assistance to those desiring to use it, in a more equitable distribution of gifts to the needy at the Yuletide.

It is emphasized that the Clearing House itself is not a donor of baskets or gifts of any kind. It is only a coordinated effort on the part of concerned people to provide a service.

Believe Viet post taken

SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnamese troops repulsed an attack on one fire base north of Kontum in the central highlands Monday, but field reports indicated another outpost may have been overrun.

The Saigon command said the North Vietnamese shelled the Ngo Trang base, seven miles northwest of Kontum, and then made a ground assault on the camp's outer defenses.

"The enemy was repulsed, leaving behind 65 dead and 16 assorted weapons," a communique said. It reported four government troops killed and 15 wounded.

It was the third day of attacks on Ngo Trang.

Field reports of fighting at another outpost nine miles north of Kontum said 35 of the defenders were missing and the fate of the post was not known.

Fire Base November, four miles north of Kontum, was hit by 40 artillery and mortar rounds. One South Vietnamese officer said the shelling was an everyday occurrence.

Twelve B52 strikes were flown against North Vietnamese troop concentrations and staging areas in the central highlands between noon Monday and 6 a.m. today, the U.S. Command reported.

Harsha, in London, accepts International Safety Award

LONDON — The first International Road Safety Award was presented to Ohio 6th District Congressman William H. Harsha tonight in London by England's Minister of Transportation John Peyton.

Harsha, a leading advocate of highway safety legislation and ranking Republican on the House Public Works Committee, received the safety award at a Parliamentary dinner in his honor at the Royal Auto Club in London. Twenty-eight members of the U.S. Congress and Great Britain's Parliament attended the presentation ceremony.

The safety award, the first of its kind, was sponsored by a leading European industry publication, "Traffic Engineering and Control Magazine."

In accepting his award, Harsha expressed his "deep appreciation for this singular honor" and his "hope that this International Road Safety Cup will become a symbol of both aspiration and achievement in the field of highway safety."

The Ohio lawmaker also stressed the international need for improved highway safety programs:

"The world auto population and driver usage grows each year. Concurrently, the cause and effects of highway mishaps become increasingly complex. Thus, although accident rates per miles driven go down, accident totals go up."

Harsha cited grisly statistics showing that in America the population death rate from auto accidents has increased by almost 30 per cent in the last decade. "This means that last year in America 600,000 people were carried from the scene of automobile accidents, dead or alive, with disastrous effects on their families, their jobs, their incomes, their lives," he said.

In addition, Harsha pointed to the need for "new approaches to reduce the carnage on our roads" and "the importance of increased public awareness and concern for this problem."

McArthur man will become House Clerk

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Democratic leadership of the newly-elected Ohio House has filled one key patronage job and indicated it will fill another by the end of this week.

The office of Speaker-Designate A. G. Lancione, D-30 Bellaire, announced Monday the appointment of Theodore R. Boring, postmaster at McArthur in Vinton County, as legislative clerk. Boring served as a member of the House from Vinton County for four terms—1956 to 1964.

Another full-time position in the House, executive secretary, probably will be filled "late in the week," said Rep. Vernal Riffe Jr., D-22 New Boston, who will be speaker pro tem at the session starting Jan. 1.

Rep. John McCarthy, D-81 Youngstown, has been mentioned as a likely choice for that post. McCarthy did not seek re-election this year and instead made an unsuccessful bid for Mahoning County treasurer.

Boring will succeed Republican Thomas White of Columbus as clerk. White earns $17,971 in the post, but is higher on the legislative pay scale than Boring will be. Democratic leaders said the new clerk's salary has not been determined.

The executive secretary position usually pays in the $20,000 range.

Lancione had warm words for Boring, who served as chairman of the House Commerce and Transportation Committee in the 103rd General Assembly (1959-60). "His record speaks for itself. He is well versed in state and local government. I am confident that his experience, concern, and vigor will make a vital contribution to the House of Representatives," Lancione said.

MT quartet grabs All-Ohio grid honors

Spears lands berth as second team end

Four Miami Trace football players, who landed All-Southeastern Ohio District honors recently, were today honored on the Associated Press' Class AAA All-Ohio team.

Jeff Spears, the Panthers fleet-footed wide receiver who captured the coveted Lineman of the Year honor on the AP's All-District team, was named to the second offensive team as an end.

Pete Jones, Gardner Cobb and Tony Grooms were named to the All-Ohio honorable mention list.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)— Judging from The Associated Press Class AAA All-Ohio team, the state again will be fertile recruiting ground for college football coaches.

The 22-man squad selected with the recommendations of a statewide panel of sports writers and broadcasters is an all-senior one except for North Canton Hoover tailback Jeff Logan, a junior who scored 32 touchdowns this year.

The blue chip athletes are headed by the Players of the Year, Cincinnati Princeton tailback Mike Gayles and Cleveland Latin's two-way tackle Gary Jeter.

Gayles, a 170-pound comet who piled up more than 2,000 yards rushing this fall, beat Massillon tailback Tom Hannon and Dave Migliore, Dover's versatile quarterback, for the No. 1 back.

Adams may be sidelined as Bergey regains health

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — After a performance including two interceptions, eight unassisted tackles and four assists, young Cincinnati linebacker Doug Adams could be headed back to the bench.

The second-year man from Ohio State has the misfortune of playing best at middle linebacker, the spot where veteran Bill Bergey has excelled for the Bengals. But Adams has gained much respect in subbing in recent games for Bergey, who has been injured.

"If Bill is 100 per cent this week, we'll play Bill," Bengals linebacking coach Vince Costello said. "But Bill will have to be 100 per cent. You normally don't use a backup man unless your regular middle linebacker is less than 75 per cent healthy."

Adams, a soft-spoken, easygoing fellow off field, figures he played the best game of his pro career when he led the Bengals in shutting down the high-scoring offense of the New York Giants Sunday. The Bengals won 13-10 and kept their hopes alive for a "wild card" playoff position.

"It always makes you feel good when you get to play, and play well, and win," said Adams, who stands 6-foot-1 and weighs 227 pounds. "I just try to do as good as I can, try to make sure I know what I am going to do, and hope and Andy Lucas, Toledo St. Francis; center Harry Reed, Columbus Marion-Franklin; quarterback Mark Kraker, Columbus Eastmoor, and running backs Rob Carpenter, Lancaster; Ted Bell, Youngstown Mooney, and Don Wood, Athens.

THIRD TEAM DEFENSE— Ends Neil Little, Kent Roosevelt, and Brian Newland, Westerville; tackle Mark McCormick, Hamilton Taft, and Mike Boggs, Upper Arlington; linebackers Mike Biehler, Fremont Ross; Howard Thornton, Columbus South, and Paul Maly, Cincinnati Elder, and deep backs John David Crow, Brecksville; Paul Holland Westlake, and Mike Wagner, Kettering Fairmont East.

Adams may be sidelined as Bergey regains health

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — After a performance including two interceptions, eight unassisted tackles and four assists, young Cincinnati linebacker Doug Adams could be headed back to the bench.

The second-year man from Ohio State has the misfortune of playing best at middle linebacker, the spot where veteran Bill Bergey has excelled for the Bengals. But Adams has gained much respect in subbing in recent games for Bergey, who has been injured.

"If Bill is 100 per cent this week, we'll play Bill," Bengals linebacking coach Vince Costello said. "But Bill will have to be 100 per cent. You normally don't use a backup man unless your regular middle linebacker is less than 75 per cent healthy."

Adams, a soft-spoken, easygoing fellow off field, figures he played the best game of his pro career when he led the Bengals in shutting down the high-scoring offense of the New York Giants Sunday. The Bengals won 13-10 and kept their hopes alive for a "wild card" playoff position.

"It always makes you feel good when you get to play, and play well, and win," said Adams, who stands 6-foot-1 and weighs 227 pounds. "I just try to do as good as I can, try to make sure I know what I am going to do, and hope instincts take me to the play."

Adams said he didn't think there was any extra pressure on him Sunday because the Bengals needed the game to remain in contention for a playoff spot.

"Everybody on defense was helping me out," Adams said, explaining that teammates shouted words of encouragement to him throughout the game. "That eases things up."

"After you play a couple of games, you can concentrate more, you're not as nervous."

Tried as an outside linebacker earlier this year, Adams feels he does a better job in the middle, and Costello agrees.

"He's a natural at middle linebacker," Costello said. "But I think Bergey is a little bigger—Bergey weighs in at 240 and stands 6-foot-2—and faster than Adams. Of course, Bergey has more experience."

When asked what his future is as a middle linebacker for the Bengals and whether he can beat out Bergey, Adams replied, "We'll just have to wait and see. I really don't know."

Asked the same question, Costello responded with a smile, "I can't predict that. We're glad to have them both and want to see them both stay around. The one who will play is the one who performs the best."

Blue Lions, Panthers involved

Two interesting series on SCOL's cage docket

By MIKE FLYNN
Record-Herald Sports Editor

A pair of interesting South Central Ohio League basketball series will be renewed Friday night when Washington C. H. visits Wilmington and Miami Trace travels to Greenfield McClain.

Although both appear lopsided in one way or another, a certain amount of prestige will be at stake, especially for Washington C. H. and Miami Trace.

When Washington C. H.'s Blue Lions invade Wilmington's Richardson Place gymnasium Friday night they will be searching for a ninth consecutive win over the Hurryin' Hurricane in a tough SCOL sports rivalry which has grown in intensity in recent years.

THE PRESTIGE at stake here will be the fact that Washington C. H. head coach Gary Shaffer, now in his fifth season with the Blue Lion cagers, has never tasted defeat in four years of contests with Wilmington.

Wilmington held a mastery over the Blue Lions in basketball before Shaffer took over at Washington C. H. in the 1968-69 campaign. The Blue Lions have peeled off eight straight wins over Wilmington under Shaffer's guidance. The last Wilmington win came during the 1967-68 season.

And finally, Wilmington mentor Buddy Bell has yet to beat Washington C. H. as the Blue Lions took 58-50 and 58-53 verdicts in Bell's Clinton County debut a year ago.

Miami Trace's Panthers will be looking for their 20th win over Greenfield in the series between the two SCOL members which dates back to Panthers' basketball baptism in the 1961-62 season.

The Panthers hold a commanding 19-3 series advantage and prior to a pair of Greenfield wins in the 1969-70 season, the Tigers had never experienced victory over a Miami Trace basketball team.

Greenfield gained its third win in the one-sided series with a 72-69 decision on the Miami Trace court which helped the Tigers capture their first SCOL championship in nearly two decades of games.

MIAMI TRACE boss Jan Stauffer has continued to help the Panthers with their mastery over the Highland Countians as he has posted a 3-1 mark heading into this year's shooting matches.

Trojans unanimous No. 1

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Mighty Southern California, the only unbeaten team in the nation, was a unanimous No. 1 choice today in the final Associated Press college football ratings for the regular season.

The Trojans, who trounced Notre Dame 45-23 to finish 11-0, have only a Rose Bowl date with third-ranked Ohio State standing between them and their third national championship in 11 years. The final poll will be taken after the New Year's Day bowl games.

In the wake of Alabama's 17-16 loss to Auburn, Southern Cal received all 50 first-place votes and a perfect 1,000 points from a nationwide panel of sports writers and broadcasters.

Oklahoma, which finished behind national champion Nebraska a year ago, trimmed Oklahoma State 38-15 and moved up from third to second with 878 points while Ohio State, which wound up its regular season a week earlier, climbed from fourth to third with 666 points.

The stunning fourth-period loss to Auburn dropped previously unbeaten Alabama from second to fourth with 606 points, followed by idle Penn State with 554 points.

Cinderella Auburn's miracle rally against Alabama vaulted the Tigers from ninth to sixth while Texas, Michigan and Nebraska, all idle, slipped one spot apiece to seventh, eighth and ninth, respectively.

Louisiana State hasn't scored a touchdown in two weeks but the Tigers got a pair of fourthquarter field goals to beat Tulane 9-6 and move into 10th position, up from 11th. They replaced Notre Dame, which fell to 12th behind Tennessee, a 30-10 victor over Vanderbilt.

Then came Colorado, UCLA, Arizona State, North Carolina, Louisville, West Virginia, Washington State and Purdue, none of which played over the weekend. Last week's Second Ten consisted of LSU, Tennessee, Colorado, North Carolina, UCLA, Arizona State, Louisville, West Virginia, Washington State and Oklahoma State. O-State's loss to Oklahoma dropped the Cowboys from the Top Twenty.

UCLA atop ratings; Iowa surprises UK

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Baron, Adolph Rupp, had an unfamiliar view of Monday night's Kentucky-Iowa college basketball game, and he was not particularly pleased by what he saw.

Kentucky, ranked eighth nationally, was upset on its own home court by unranked Iowa 79-66 as Rupp watched from a seat in the stands at Lexington's Memorial Coliseum.

Rupp, the winningest coach in college basketball history in his 42-year tenure at Kentucky, was forced to retire following last season, after he reached the school's mandatory retirement age of 70. Joe Hall, Rupp's top assistant, inherited the Wildcats coaching post.

"Mistakes by the dozen," noted Rupp, as the two teams combined for 29 turnovers. Kentucky sank just 29 of 70 shots from the field for a meager 41.4 per cent, while Iowa shot at a rate of 56.9 per cent.

The game was tied 42-42 early in the second half, but Neil Fegebank scored 12 points in the second half and directed the surprising Hawkeyes to a lead which was as high as 15 points.

Iowa got balanced scoring, with Kevin Kunnert hitting 17 points, Rick Williams 15, Fegebank 14, Jim Collins 13 and Candy LaPrince 12. Kentucky was topped by Jim Andrews' 14 points, although he was in foul trouble much of the game.

Rupp, who is now serving as president of the Memphis Teams of the American Basketball Association, steadily refused to comment on the play of the Kentucky team.

Dressed in his familiar brown suit, he found it uncomfortable sitting six rows up.

"It's not necessarily for the reason you think," he said while being hounded throughout the game by autograph seekers. Although he per-

Rams trip 49ers, 26-16; give Falcons league lead

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Roman Gabriel's third-down magic, aided by some of Coach Tommy Prothro's trickery, was just too much for the San Francisco 49ers to handle.

"We would hold them for two downs, and on the third they'd get it," 49ers middle linebacker Ed Beard said.

That told the story of the Los Angeles Rams' 26-16 victory over San Francisco Monday night that made the Atlanta Falcons, 7-5, the new leaders in the National Football League's wildest race.

The 49ers fell from first in the National Conference West standings and into a second-place tie with the Rams at 6-5-1.

Things are sure to be shaken up again Sunday, when the Falcons meet the 49ers here and the Rams go to St. Louis to play the Cardinals on the next-to-last weekend of the season.

"I can't see us letting down the last two games," said Gabriel, who helped the Rams snap a three-game losing streak by throwing a pair of touchdown passes on third down plays.

The Rams made first downs on seven of 16 third-down situations. Four of the times they missed, David Ray followed with field goals, ranging from 12 to 42 yards.

Gabriel scrambled away from 49ers' rushers in the second period to fire a 26-yard touchdown pass on third-and-13 to tight end Bob Klein, sending the Rams ahead 10-9.

He sent running back Willie Ellison downfield on a third-and-five play in the third quarter that resulted in a 39-yard scoring play and a 23-9 Rams' lead.

The Los Angeles quarterback wasn't involved in his team's first third-down play of the game. Prothro called for "formation zero."

Joe Morrison eyes UC coaching post

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)— Veteran New York Giants running back Joe Morrison has met with University of Cincinnati officials to discuss the school's vacant head football coaching post, the Cincinnati Enquirer reported today.

Correct speech defects early

At what age should a parent get help for a child who continues to speak baby talk?

Our 5-year-old daughter, now in kindergarten, still speaks this way. My husband feels we should not bother the child with professional help at this age.

Mrs. H.E.V., S.C.

Dear Mrs. V.:

There is a great temptation to perpetuate a child's charming baby talk. And parents frequently fall into the same pattern of speech when talking to the child.

Yet it must be discouraged before it interferes with the relationship between the child and other children at school or at play.

I want to emphasize that by "discouragement" I do not mean it should be stopped by punishment or by ridicule, for that would create greater and more significant emotional problems.

A child's relationship with other children in the early formative years depends to a great measure on good speech. Baby talk must actually be considered a speech defect that needs to be remedied.

Any speech disorder is a great handicap to a child and to an adult. It is estimated that more than two million people in the United States have some kind of speech defect which interferes with their social, scholastic or business relationships.

All speech defects should be investigated at the earliest possible age. Only in this way can the child's social adjustment and achievement be maintained.

Among many possible physical reasons for a child's speech defects are: malformations of the jaw, cleft palate, and bands of adhesions that tie down the tongue.

Also, since all speech depends on good hearing it is important to be sure there are no hidden ear defects or impairment of hearing. Poor development of speech patterns is often attributable to hearing defects.

It is obvious your child's speech needs correction if she is to be spared the embarrassment that so often accompanies this situation at school.

Consultation at this time with a speech therapist would not be the burden on your child that your husband considers it to be. Speech therapists are highly trained. In addition, they have a keen insight into the psychological techniques for remedying these speech defects.

Dr. Doris Leberfeld, of the Center for Communication Disorders in New York City, is a leading American authority on all patterns of speech communication. She believes that the key to the rehabilitation of all people with speech defects is to begin therapy as soon as the abnormality is recognized.

Sailing men from the seaport town of Dhunga, India, used to be identified by the heavy cotton denim trousers they wore, and were called "Dungarees" as were the pants. That name led to a modern term for blue denim jeans — dungarees.

Christmas season is here and gift buying is well underway. We are lucky here in this town that we have a downtown shopping area of the quality it is. The personal touch, like that's the thing. Here we have people with integrity who are most anxious to help you select just the right gift for that special person. The downtown area of Washington C. H. has much you'd never find in the large cities, or other small towns, for that matter. And all this without all the problems of the city shopping mess.

Just show me show-windows anywhere more beautifully handled than at Steen's. More imaginative than Soldan's. And the people behind the counter? These are the nicest people you'll find anywhere, right here on Court St. Who wants to clutter up the highways when it's more fun to shop here in our downtown area.

And just in case there is a camera fan on your list this year you might want to drop in our place and let us help you pick just the thing to turn on this shutterbug. And if there is no lensman on your list you're in luck, 'cause when you get him one of the new Pocket Instamatic cameras he's well on the way to being a swinging photo-hobbyist. Well, gee, that isn't as bad as being hooked on drugs.

So far this seems to be a Honeywell Spotmatic year. A whole bunch of lucky people will unwrap one of the Honeywell Spotmatic cameras under the tree Christmas morning and the rest of the day will be well covered photographically, pix that will be shown year after year — the year we got our Spotmatic. Maybe this is the year you should get someone in your family started with a Spotmatic. Then there's the Leicaflex if you really want to make it a Merry Christmas for that special someone. Think about it.

Council panel eyes personnel, pay policies

A committee of City Council Monday night began an in-depth review of personnel policies and pay plans currently in effect in the city and has scheduled a future meeting to make recommendations for changes to the full Council.

Meeting with City Manager Dan Wolford were Council Chairman Hugh S. Patton and Councilman Ralph Cook, who comprise the study committee. Wolford submitted a 60-page report to the committee which includes a compilation of all current procedures, regulations and salary schedules pertaining to all city employees. Following a complete review of this material, the committee will make recommendations for changes.

City Manager Wolford said Tuesday morning that it appears doubtful if a final report can be submitted to Council as a whole by Jan. 1. However, he said, any changes which may be recommended after Jan. 1 in all probability will be made retroactive to the first of the year.

Under close study by the committee are current policies, procedures, salary schedules, fringe benefit packages and rules for employment. Wolford said once a complete report is adopted by City Council and the provisions implemented by the passage of ordinances, it will become a permanent manual concerning personnel policies and procedures.

Property damage crashes reported

No injuries were reported in three traffic mishaps investigated by police and sheriff's departments Monday. Two drivers were cited for traffic law infractions as result of the property damage crashes.

Police listed damage as moderate in a car-truck collision on North Street, north of Rawlings Street, at 12:30 p.m. Monday.

Officers said a car driven by Freida E. Ellis, 46, Rt. 2, had stopped in the northbound lane for traffic when the truck driven by Stanley N. Lloyd, 35, of Columbus, crashed into the rear of Mrs. Ellis's car.

Lloyd was cited for failure to maintain assured clear distance.

Also charged with failure to maintain assured clear distance was Alberta Posey, 30, Rt. 2, Frankfort, following a two-car crash at 11:05 p.m.

Sheriff's deputies said her car collided with the rear of a car driven by Michael W. Johnson, 24, of 716 Peabody Ave., as he slowed behind another car on U.S. 35, north of Washington C.H.

Sheriff's deputies investigated one other minor crash involving a car driven by Robert L. Hall, 51, of 708 Oak Dr., and a semi-rig. Hall told officers he bumped into the rear of the rig when it slowed suddenly in front of him Monday morning. The semi driver failed to stop.

of video-taped depositions, a first in the history of county jurisprudence.

E. D. and Thomas E. Kimball, both of Columbus, filed the joint action against Frank Helsel, Rt. 6, in which they both seek judgments of $50,000 in compensatory damages and like amounts in punitive damages.

The two men allege in their petition that Helsel struck them about the face and head on W. Mound Street in Columbus, March 6, causing both to suffer permanent injuries.

Judge Evelyn W. Coffman, after viewing video-taped depositions Friday, ruled them admissible for showing to the jury Tuesday morning. The tapes, which took nearly three hours to play, were depositions taken from three Columbus physicians testifying as expert witnesses for the plaintiffs.

THE DEPOSITIONS were taped and equipment furnished for the courtroom by Video Record, Inc., of Columbus. Such video-taped depositions were ruled admissible Sept. 1 by the Ohio Supreme Court and are now extensively used throughout the state.

Attorneys may now elect to present witnesses in this manner under explicit guidelines. The taped depositions are handled by the clerks of court in the same manner that ordinary depositions or court records are handled.

Video Record, Inc., with Judge Coffman's approval, furnished three monitors — one for the jury, one for the judge and another for the attorneys — and a video player in order to present the three witnesses Tuesday morning. The company also filed with the clerk a master copy of the tape for record in the event of appeal and a copy to be used in the courtroom.

The video tape used in the trial is one that has been edited for viewing following the ruling by the trial judge on objections. The material ruled as objectionable was deleted from the tape prior to its viewing by the jury.

The use of video equipment is becoming widely used in order to present for interrogation such expert witnesses as busy physicians, although this system is not reserved for any particular type of witness, it was explained.

AN EIGHT-MEMBER jury was seated in the trial by 10:40 a.m. Monday. Members of the jury include Charles L. Zinn, James E. Wisecup, Margaret M. Francis, Myrtle Trout, Terry Summers, L. Carl Johnson, Wilby McCoy and Milbourne Barney. The alternate jurist is John E. Lyons.

In another turn of events, Judge Coffman Monday sustained a defense motion for summary judgment and dismissed a related complaint filed in Common Pleas Court by Helsel seeking $100,000 in damages from the Kimball brothers.

In the separate action filed Sept. 19 by Helsel, he sought judgment of $35,000 in compensatory and $65,000 in alleged punitive damages resulting from a letter the Kimballs issued to him that accused him of removing property from a truck which did not belong to him.

The court ruled that there was no proof that the letter was seen by anyone other than the plaintiff and that the letter was addressed only to him.

FOP, FOPA groups elect new officers

Officers for 1973 were elected at the joint meeting of the Fraternal Order of Police and Fraternal Order of Police Associates, Monday night in the lodge hall.

Elected as FOP officers for the upcoming year were: John Emrick, president; Bill Crooks, vice president; Charles Foster, secretary; Virgil Harris, treasurer.

FOPA officers selected were Ralton Smith, president; Dick Sexton, vice president; Eugene Denen, secretary; Bill Black, treasurer; Ted Yoakum, treasurer.

Harold Bailes, Lee Shonkwiler, and Lowell Marvin, FOPA trustees, were not up for election this year.

It was announced that the date for the next joint meeting has been changed from next Jan. 1 to Jan. 8, due to the New Year holiday.

TYPICAL CONFERENCE — This group conference of parents and students with Jim Grant, assistant director of admissions at Ohio State University, was one of many held at "College and Career Night" Monday at Miami Trace High School. More than 450 parents and students took advantage of the opportunity to discuss higher education problems with representatives of 60 colleges and vocational schools.

450 students, parents attend 'College Night'

More than 450 students and their parents took advantage of an opportunity to learn more about continuing education Monday night at a "College and Career" program at Miami Trace High School.

The attendance fell short of the 600 who attended the conference last year, but the slump was attributed to the dense fog which settled down over this part of the state in late afternoon. MTHS Principal Curtis Fleisher said students and parents from six of the seven schools invited were present.

Represented were schools at Washington C. H., Greenfield, Madison Plains, Hillsboro, Wilmington, Greenfield and Miami Trace. An invitation had been extended to Circleville, but it was not accepted because a similar conference is to be held there later.

Fleisher welcomed the visitors at the general meeting in the auditorium, and Fred Doyle, advisor to the MTHS National Honor Society, the sponsor, explained the purposes of "College and Career Night" before the group broke up for a 20-minute conference with representatives of the colleges and vocational schools in which they were interested. The schedule was arranged so that parents and students could attend four of these smaller 20-minute sessions.

Representatives of 60 colleges, universities, vocational and technical schools participated in small group discussions of many aspects of education after high school. These discussions covered about everything from costs, admission procedures, graduation requirements and curricula.

Informal talks continued during a social hour when cookies, punch and coffee were served.

81 students, teachers at Prayer Breakfast

Attendance at the weekly prayer breakfasts for teenagers at the South Side Church of Christ made a comeback Tuesday after a brief slump during the Thanksgiving season, with 81 students and teachers.

The pastor, the Rev. Charles J. Richmond, was the speaker. All the students participating in the service were seniors. Debbie Coulter and Jean Anders, of WSHS, led the singing and Connie Crummy, of MTHS, spoke on "God's Plan for Your Life."

WCH man fined, jailed on exposure complaint

Judge Reed M. Winegardner sentenced a 25-year-old Washington C. H. man to 30 days in the county jail after finding him guilty on an indecent exposure charge during Monday's Municipal Court session.

Sentenced to the jail term was Gerald E. Mustard, 25, of 113½ W. Court St. He also was fined $200 and costs on the complaint filed by a Washington C. H. woman Nov. 13.

Police said Mustard was arrested Saturday at Chillicothe Police headquarters where he was being held on a similar charge. The conviction here was Mustard's second on an indecent exposure charge in the past three years.

Officers said the incident occurred in the 100 block of N. Main Street. Mustard had pleaded innocent to the complaint.

A 30-day jail term suspended from a previous conviction and a fine totaling $75 were levied against Keith E. Bennett, 18, of 724 Wilson St., on an intoxication charge filed by city police. Bennett was arrested early Sunday in the city parking lot after he had fled from officers on N. Fayette Street.

The jail term and $50 of the fine stemmed from a resisting arrest charge filed by police in August. Bennett had pleaded guilty to the charge.

Gary L. Allen, 28, of Hillsboro, forfeited $200 bond when he failed to appear in a shoplifting case filed by Seaway.

Employees there had charged that Allen walked out of the store carrying five eyeball sets, valued at $2.75 for which he had not paid. The incident occurred Saturday night.

A $50 bond was forfeited by Jackie N. Garrison, 31, of 903 Gregg St., on a disturbing the peace complaint filed by Ron Coe, manager of the H & H Bar, E. Court St. Garrison was arrested on the complaint early Monday.

Owen J. Erwin, of Columbus, forfeited two bonds totaling $75 on complaints filed by Jerry Cremeans, state game protector. Cremeans had charged Erwin with shooting from a roadway, and hunting after hours. The violations occurred Nov. 17.

Breaking - entering complaint probed

Sheriff's deputies are investigating an apparent breaking and entering incident that occurred at a McKillip Road home Sunday night.

Ruth Ann Massie told officers that a car containing three persons drove into her front yard and the visitors began throwing rocks at the front of her home. They then broke down the door and entered the home, she said.

Mrs. Massie, at home at the time, said the trio ransacked the house and then left by the rear door. They returned a few minutes later and removed the mailbox, she said.

Sheriff's deputies said the incident apparently was sparked by domestic problems.

Richard Connell, of 308 Buckeye Rd., reported to police that the antenna had been broken off his car parked in front of his home. The incident occurred overnight Sunday. Loss was set at $4.

Man injured in fall

Ora Bellar, 68, of 1139 E. Paint St., was treated at Memorial Hospital for minor bumps and bruises suffered in a fall, Monday afternoon. Police said Bellar fell while working along Temple Street and was taken to Memorial Hospital by ambulance.

Nine thousand non-Europeans have settled in Australia in each of the last three years.
